1. Applications for Indian Passports must be made[illegible]nd submitted either direct or through the local authority—

(a) in the case of a resident in British In[illegible]

(b) in the case of a resident in an Indian State, to the Political Officer concerned.

2. The charge for an Indian Passport is Rs. 10/-. (Payable either in Cash or in Postage Stamps.)

3. Indian Passports are granted to:—

(a) British subjects by birth. (b) Wives and widows of such persons. (c) British subjects by naturalization. (d) British-protected persons.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

*4. Passports are granted upon the production of a declaration by the applicant (in the case of a child under 15 requiring a separate Passport by the child's parent or guardian) in the prescribed form of application verified by a declaration made by a Political Officer, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Police Officer not below the rank of Superintendent, or Notary Public, resident in India. If possible the declaration should be signed by an Officer of the District in which the applicant is resident. Otherwise the issue of a Passport may be delayed while enquiries are being made from the local authorities.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a British or Indian State subject by naturalization, the certificate of naturalization must be forwarded with the form of application to the Officer empowered to grant the Passport. It will be returned with the Passport to the applicant through the person who may have verified the declaration.

British subjects by naturalization will be described as such in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications.

6. Small duplicate unmounted photographs (size approximately two and three quarter inches by two inches) of the applicant (and wife, if to be included) must be forwarded with the application for a Passport, one of which must be certified on the back by the person verifying the declaration made in the application form.

[illegible]ports are not available beyond five years from date of issue. They may be renewed for a further maximum period of five [illegible]sh Passports must be obtained. The fee for renewal is Rs. 2/- for each year, or portion of a year, for which the Passport is [illegible]annot be issued or renewed on behalf of persons already abroad; such persons should apply for Passports to the London [illegible]rest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of India by post.

[illegible] of an applicant for a Passport being unable to write English, a transcription in English should be placed below the applicant's [illegible] in the form of application. In the case of an illiterate person, a thumb impression should be substituted for a signature on [illegible]ion. which should be certified by the person verifying the declaration.

[illegible]port is only available for travel to the countries named on p. 4, but may be endorsed for additional countries. The possession [illegible]ndorsed does not exempt the holder from compliance with any immigration laws in force in British or Foreign countries, or from [illegible]cining a Visa when required.

11. Passports endorsed as valid for the British Empire are also available for travelling to territory under British protection or mandate not, however, including Palestine or Transjordan for which the Passport must be especially endorsed, or the Aden Protectorate, for which both an endorsement and a Visa are required.

12. British subjects resident abroad should in all cases register their names and addresses at the nearest British Consulate. Such registration constitutes the most ready means in emergency or difficulty of [illegible]ling all proper assistance or advice to be afforded them. Changes of address in or departure from the country of residence should also be notified to the Consulate.

Persons merely passing through a foreign country or making a short stay there are not regarded as residents, and need not register unless their stay exceeds three months.

*FOOTNOTE.—Parda-nashin or gosha women desirous of travelling from India to Malaya, the Straits Settlements, the East African Protectorate, Uganda, Zanzibar, Mauritius, the Nyassaland Protectorate and the Union of South Africa are exempted from the necessity of attaching their photographs to their applications for passports or of appearing in person before the passport issuing authorities.
